B. PROJECTS IN PROCESS

1. Language Development Program

a. Language Development Committee Meeting

The July meeting of the Committee on Language Development was held on 30 July. The Chief, FDD, was present to discuss proposals he had recommended for consideration of the Committee regarding the eligibility of individuals hired by the Agency primarily because of language proficiency which had been attained prior to employment. Among other things, it was agreed that a separate meeting of the Committee is required in further consideration of Mr. Bagnall's proposal before recommending action to the DTR on policy and procedural questions involved in it.

b. Form 444c

W
The Office of Personnel produced a summary of the responses to Form 444c, as of 30 June 1957. These data provide the basis upon which OTR can measure the testing load which must be carried and disposed of by 30 June 1958. One hundred tests will have to be administered in [ ] languages between 1 March and 30 June 1958, with approximately [ ] people in each test. This is approximately four times the current testing load. This Staff, in collaboration with [ ] and the ALE Staff, is studying the impact of this load on OTR's capability to handle it.

CONFIDENTIAL

c. Briefing on Language Development Program

Chief, PPS, participated with the DDTR in briefing the Director of Training of USIA, on CIA's Language Development Program.

2. CIA Presentation to the National War College

The program for the CIA presentation to the staff, faculty and student body of the National War College has been confirmed. The DD/CI will open the presentation with a welcome and a few introductory remarks. The Inspector General will deal with the origin, missions and structure of CIA; the DD/I will discuss CIA, The Intelligence Community and the NSC; the Director will present the Agency's psychological and paramilitary responsibilities and operations, and the DD/P will present CIA's foreign and counter-intelligence operations.

Each of the above presentations will be of 40 minutes duration, with a five-minute break in between. The question period for each speaker is included in the 40 minutes allowed in each case. A memorandum to the DD/CI conveying the program and schedule of presentations is being prepared for transmittal to the Commandant, National War College. Co-ordination has been accomplished with the offices of each of the speakers and with Capt. Shade, USN, of the faculty of the National War College.

Mr. Dulles' participation has been confirmed by Mr. Wisner's office, as a result of conversations between Mr. Helms with the Director on this subject. [redacted] were unaware of this commitment on the part of the Director, since they were not present when Mr. Helms and Mr. Wisner discussed it. In any event, it will be well to ensure that Mr. Helms, Mr. FitzGerald, or Mr. Wisner be prepared to speak for the Director in the event that his arrival in Washington should be unavoidably delayed.
